Analytics Cookies

We have set these Cookies (both first party and Google Analytics) in a privacy-friendly manner. In terms of Google Analytics cookies, this means we have agreed a processor agreement with Google. In addition, the last part of your IP address has been masked and we have "data sharing" turned off. We do not use other Google services to place these types of Cookies. In this way, the placement of these Analytics Cookies has little to no consequences for the privacy of you as a Website visitor. As a result, in certain jurisdictions it may not be required to give consent for the placement of these Analytics Cookies. However, you can always revoke your consent by disabling them. Through these Analytics Cookies we analyse where and when errors occur on the Website, for example. We do this, among other things, based on your behavior on the site across the various devices you use. Furthermore, these cookies collect information to tailor advertising to your interest. Targeting Cookies can be set by us or by our advertising partners. They may be used to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant ads on our sites or on other sites. If you do not allow these Cookies, you will experience less targeted advertising. Social Media cookies offer the possibility to connect you to your social networks (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Youtube and LinkedIn) and share content from our site through social media. In addition, if you consent, these social media also track your behavior on our sites and apps so they can show you more targeted ads and content on their platform.
